

Daniel Ham Family
Compiled by Bruce A. Fowler
Hartland Historical Society 2013

Note: John Ham is often shown on family trees on Ancestry and other research sites as a son of William & Honor Ham (See Samuel Ham Family Bio) however that particular connection of John to William is yet undocumented. Several early publications of New Hampshire's history do mention John as a "family member of the Pioneer William Ham". He certainly could be a nephew, cousin or even possibly a grandson however he is never mentioned in William Ham's 1672 Will as an heir.

From a letter by Richard Waldron Jr, Esq. of Portsmouth, New Hampshire:

"June 28, 1689; about 8 o'clock, morning. Just now came ashore here from Cocheca. John Ham and his wife, who went hence last night homeward, they living within a mile of Major Waldron, and about break of day going up the river in a canoe, they heard guns fired but notwithstanding proceeded to land at Major Waldron's landing place, by which time it began to be light, and they saw about twenty Indians near Mr. Coffin's garrison, shouting and shouting, as many more around Richard Otis' and Thomas Pain's, but saw their way to Major Waldron's, where they intended immediately to secure themselves; but coming to the gate and calling and knocking could receive no answer, yet saw a light in one of the chambers and one of them say, looking through a crack in the gate, that he saw sundry Indians within the garrison which supposed had murdered Major Waldron and his family, and thereupon they betook themselves to make an escape, which they did, and met one of Otis's sons who also escaped from his father's garrison informing that his father and the rest of the family were killed. Quickly after they set sundry houses on fire. This is all the account we have at present, and being given in a surprise, may admit of some alterations; but doubtless the most of those at or about Cocheca are destroyed."

From Ancestors and Descendants of Andrew Lee and Clarinda Knapp Allen: "After living many years on a farm at Tolend in Cocheca (Dover), he (John) bought the homestead on Garrison Hill in Dover from Peter Coffin and moved there. He served in Dover on Jury Duty in 1671, 1688 & 1694 and served on a Grand Jury 1703; He served as Constable 1686 and as Surveyor; He was also the Town Clerk, leaving office March 1693. His will was made between 29 Sep 1727 & 19 Feb 1727-8." He was also a Lieutenant in the Militia.

From a postcard of John Ham's home at Garrison Hill:

"The Ham house at Garrison Hill, Dover, N.H., was in existence in 1696, and is thought to have been built in 1680. It was not attacked by the Indians on June 28th, 1689 because Mr. Eben Varney who built it was a Quaker, and maintained friendly terms with the Indians."
