Alfred Martin

b. Apr 1821 North Bedford, New Hampshire
d. 13 Mar 1891 St Albans (Lang Cemetery, Ripley) at 69 yrs
m. 1846 St Albans

Almena M. Carr

d/o Jonathan Carr of Rochester, New York & Paramey Seavey of Deerfield, New Hampshire

b. 24 Apr 1821 Vienna
d. 5 Aug 1903 St Albans (Lang Cemetery, Ripley) at 82 yrs
They are living with her parents in St Albans in C/1850 & C/1860 with her father, Jonathan Carr, noted as Head of Household. They are living in the same place in C/1870 but Alfred is now noted as Head of Household with her parents listed living with them. They remain in the same home in C/1880 with their children with Alfred noted as a Farmer. Following Alfred's death, Almena is noted living in the household of her grandson, Seldon Martin, in St Albans in C/1900 where her son Charles also lives. It appears this is the same homestead.

From the 1903 Lewiston Sun Journal, "As quietly and peacefully as fade the stars from sight, so Mrs. Almena Martin, of St. Albans, passed from her earthly life Wednesday, August 5th. Mrs. Martin was born in Vienna, Maine, April 24, 1821, and was the only child of Jonathan and Ploomy (Seavey) Carr. At twenty-five years of age she was married to Alfred Martin, whom she survived by twelve years, and seven children, six of whom are still living, blessed their union. George Stanley the second son is in San Francisco. The other five were with her in her last hours. Since the death of her husband, Mrs. Martin has resided with her eldest son, Charles Granville, on the old Martin homestead in St. Albans. The other children are: Mrs. Nathan L. Meands of Kingfield, Mrs. Charles H. Bonney of St. Albans, Edgar H. Martin of St. Albans, and Fred W. Martin of Hartland. Everything that love and care could do, was done to stay the time when she was to pass to a better and brighter home beyond. The funeral was Friday at one o'clock. The Rev. William Lang of Pittsfield, officiating. The flowers from friends and relatives were many and beautiful. The interment was in the family lot in the Prescott (Lang) Cemetery."
