From Canaan Historical Society:

"John Nevens came from Pejoscot (Danville) when this part of the country was almost an unbroken wilderness, traveling part of the way from Danville by means of a spotted line through the woods. John settled on Herrin Hill, then within the town limits of Hartland. Later he moved to Canaan. His wife's name was Mary Ray, and four (surviving) children were born to them in Canaan; Chas. m. Roxana Wheeler, David m. Susan Finson, John m. Nancy Washburn, Julia m. Wm. Rines."
