

Prescott Family

Compiled by Bruce A. Fowler
Hartland Historical Society 2013 (Updated 2018)

“The first person by the name of Prescott in the Province of New Hampshire was James Prescott who came from Dryby in the county of Lincolnshire in England and settled in Hampton in 1665. On his arrival he began farming operations in what is now Hampton Falls upon the farm now known as the ‘Wells Healy Place’ and remained there until he moved to Kingston in 1725 when that town was granted to him and others. In 1668 he married Mary Boulter, daughter of Nathaniel & Grace Boulter, who was born in Exeter, New Hampshire on May 15, 1648.”

“James Prescott is represented to have been an influential man, honest in his dealings, upright in character, sound in judgment. His opinions were sought and respected. They had nine children, five sons and four daughters.”

“From this couple sprang more Prescotts in New Hampshire including future New Hampshire Governor Benjamin Prescott. James was the second cousin of John Prescott who came to Massachusetts and settled in Watertown in 1640 from whom sprang the Prescotts mainly in that state. Among them was Col. William Prescott, the hero of Bunker Hill, and his grandson, William H. Prescott, the eminent scholar and historian.”
