“He moved to Hartland at the age of ten and finished his education in the Hartland schools, graduating from Hartland Academy with the class of 1928. For many years he was employed by H.C. Baxter & Bros. and later was promoted to plant engineer at their freezing plant in Corinna, known as the Snowflake Canning Company, until it burned in 1968. The following year he was appointed Town Manager for Hartland and served in that position for seven and a half years, retiring on his 65th birthday. He continued to be active in the town affairs, serving as building inspector during the completion of three community block grants. He was a past member of the Hartland Planning Board and also served as the Plumbing Inspector. Edgar was a past member of the Board of Trustees for the Hartland Library and served on the Board of Directors of the Scott-Webb Memorial Medical Center for 18 years. He was a Past District Deputy Grand Master of the Hartland Lodge of Odd Fellows, I.O.O.F. #101 and belonged to the Hartland & St. Albans Lions Club and the Triple C. Couples Club.” Grace served as Hartland Town Librarian following Ethel Fox's retirement. They were living with his parents in Hartland on Commercial Street in C/1940.
